Letter From The Rector

The Rev. George Adamik

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to announce that The Rev. Dr. Cathy Deats and The Rev. J Carr Holland will join us, as part time associate rectors. Cathy will begin on October 1, and Carr will join us on October 16. I am thrilled for them and for us. Cathy, Carr, and I will have certain areas in the life of the parish to which we will offer particular support, while of course serving the entire parish as parish priests.

I have prayed hard these last few months for discernment regarding the hiring of a permanent priest. I have listened to you in order to hear the needs of our parish. I have had the opportunity over the last year to speak with priests as potential candidates. Also during this last year, as I have come to know Carr and Cathy and the experience, wisdom, and gifts they possess, it became apparent to me what God was doing in our midst. Having both Carr and Cathy with us, no longer as interims, but each in a part time capacity, will provide us a fullness of blessing for St. Paul's moving forward. When I requested permission from Bishop Curry to hire Cathy and Carr, he quickly responded from the House of Bishop's Meeting he was attending in Taipei, Taiwan, saying "what an awesome team."

There is a richness of blessings surrounding us at St. Paul's. Our programs have kicked off in an extraordinary way. Living into the vision God has set before us, we are experiencing a growing Children's Ministry, Youth Ministry, Music Ministry, Preschool, as well as Adult Education. And those are just five of the nearly sixty ministries here at St. Paul's striving to be faithful to the dream God has for us. We have so much for which to be thankful. I feel a momentum growing in our parish.

During the month of October, we will have the opportunity to express our thankfulness to God by making a financial pledge for 2015 to support what God is doing in our midst. Let's pray for one another as we prepare to make that faith-filled, financial commitment.

George

Warden's Corner

Have you heard the buzz and seen the excitement at St. Paul's since our programs began this fall? The programs are in full operation now and everyone is excited to participate in them. We have had a lot of children and youth participating, almost 100 in the children's church school program, almost 50 in the middle school and HS school program. The kickoff of the EYC was attended by over 60 youth. The adult education offerings are drawing lots of people to the chapel on Sunday and to the weekly offerings. The choirs are also growing. If you or your family haven't gotten engaged in any of these activities as of yet, please read in this newsletter about the upcoming activities at St. Paul's. We will be kicking off our 2015 stewardship campaign in Oct. It is through your gifts that we can provide the space and staff for the programs and ministries. If you have pledged for 2014 – we thank you, and we ask that you continue to support St. Paul's by recommitting or by growing in your support of the ministry of St. Paul's community.

If you weren't able to pledge for 2014, we ask that you consider contributing to the community by making a pledge. No gift is too small to make a difference.

Prayerfully,
Katie Robinson

About Our Church

We express our sympathy to Steve Haughey for the death of his brother-in-law, Raymond Frederick Smith; to Sarah Boone for the death of her mother, Mary Margaret McKnight; to Sallie Clement for the death of her sister-in-law, Shirley Pollock; to Lorraine Greco for the death of her aunt, Gladys Waddell; and to the family of Barbara Sowter, a member of St. Paul's.

We rejoice in the baptisms of Annabel Autumn Talbird, daughter of Victor and Sandra Talbird; Olivia June

Duckworth, daughter of Matthew and Victoria Duckworth; Grace Anabel Freeman, daughter of Michael and Emily Freeman; and Cole Thomas Eppolito, son of Craig and Caitlin Eppolito.

We rejoice in the births of Parker Anabel Robinson, daughter of Kris and Emily Robinson and granddaughter of Kurt and Katie Robinson; and the birth of Brooks David Satterfield, son of Brandy and Ryan Satterfield.

It Takes a Parish ... LobsterFest

St. Paul's LobsterFest 2014 is just moments away (Saturday, October 4th). If you haven't yet made your selection and placed your order (you're pushing it) there's still time at www.lobsterfestcary.com. If there are people in the area that you know and haven't yet made aware of the EVENT, there is still time for repentance (but not a lot) by sending a quick e-mail /making a quick phone call /handing out a Lobster Fest business card, and forgiveness is yours! "It Takes a Parish" to make Lobster Fest a success.

Live ($17), Cooked ($19), Meals ($24), all 1 ½ lb. fresh Maine Lobsters, Lobsta Rolls ($14) and Chicken Meals ($10 and $5). Delivery available for 6 or more live lobsters.

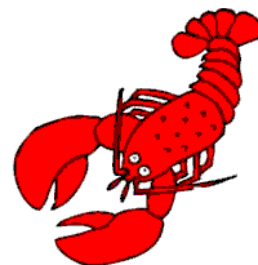

All are Welcome... to volunteer to help, beginning Friday the 3rd. Go to www.lobsterfestcary.com and then to the Inside or Outside Help at the bottom of the page, Sign up Genius. It takes a parish.

Outside Publicity

If your ministry is planning an activity or event of interest to the general public, sending an announcement to the newspaper is a great way to spread the word. But please don't forget to submit a hard copy of your press release to the church office for review and approval before sending it out.

Memorial Garden Expansion Project

We are ecstatic to announce that we have a date for the dedication of the memorial garden expansion! Please join us on Sunday, October 12th at 4:00 p.m. After the conclusion of the dedication ceremony, there will be a reception with light refreshments served in the courtyard. In the event of rain, we will gather in the chapel. We hope that you will be able to join us we celebrate this important occasion in the life of our church. Please RSVP to Alana Loughlin at alanaloughlin@bellsouth.net.

Women's Study Group

The Women's Study Group will meet Tuesday, October 14th from 12:00 noon – 1:30 p.m. in the Bride's Room to discuss Learning to Walk in the Dark by Barbara Brown Taylor. According to Amazon, this book "provides a way to find spirituality in those times when we don't have all the answers." Taylor asks us to put aside our fears and anxieties and to explore all that God has to teach us "in the dark."

Other books for the fall include:

November 11th – Orphan Train by Christina Baker Kline

December 9th – To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee

We would love to have you join us for our discussions – even if you haven't finished the book! If you have any questions, contact Leah Dail at LeahDail@gmail.com.

St. Paul's Benefit Table–Handmade items donated by parishioners

For more information about our festival artists and crafters, go to our website: www.festival.stpaulscary.org.

Coffee Bar and Bake Sale...Sample the goodies at the festival bake sale. This year we've added a coffee bar so you can have a nice warm "cuppa" with your treats in the festival cafe. Don't forget to bring something yummy home to the family!

Food Trucks...Like last year, we've got you covered for lunch. We've got two food trucks coming! Try one food truck for lunch and bring dinner home from the other. A no cooking day! We'll be announcing which food trucks are coming in the next few weeks. So be on the lookout for it!

Big Raffle....We've got several items donated by our vendors and generous local supporters. Many of our raffle items will be unique, one-of-a-kind creations. You pick the items you want to take a chance on. And this year, we're also adding a 50/50 Raffle! If you win, you'll feel like you won the lottery...only better because half of the pot goes to charity.

Handcrafted Wooden Rocking Horse....Our silent auction piece this year is a beautiful rocking horse, made with loving care by our own parish-family member, Don Johnson. It's a special piece you will treasure forever.

Books, DVDs, and CDs ...Our bookstore is a great place to browse and get away from the madding crowd. It was a favorite cozy nook to pick up some great deals--modern fiction, DVDs and CDs, etc.

More Volunteers Please– This is a community event organized and executed by our parish. Its success depends on your participation. Plus,

St. Paul's Arts & Crafts Festival – Saturday, Nov. 1, 10 AM - 4 PM (continued)

it's so much fun! To volunteer, contact Margie Best at mwbest@bellsouth.net.

Here's some of the volunteer opportunities:

Bake Sale and Coffee Bar: We need bakers to donate goodies and make coffee, and people to help on the day of the festival.

Book Sale: We need books, DVDs, and CDs! And we need people to take a shift in the book store. Children and adult books (mostly modern fiction and please no "how-to" books or reference books). Bring your books to the church and leave them by the coat rack.

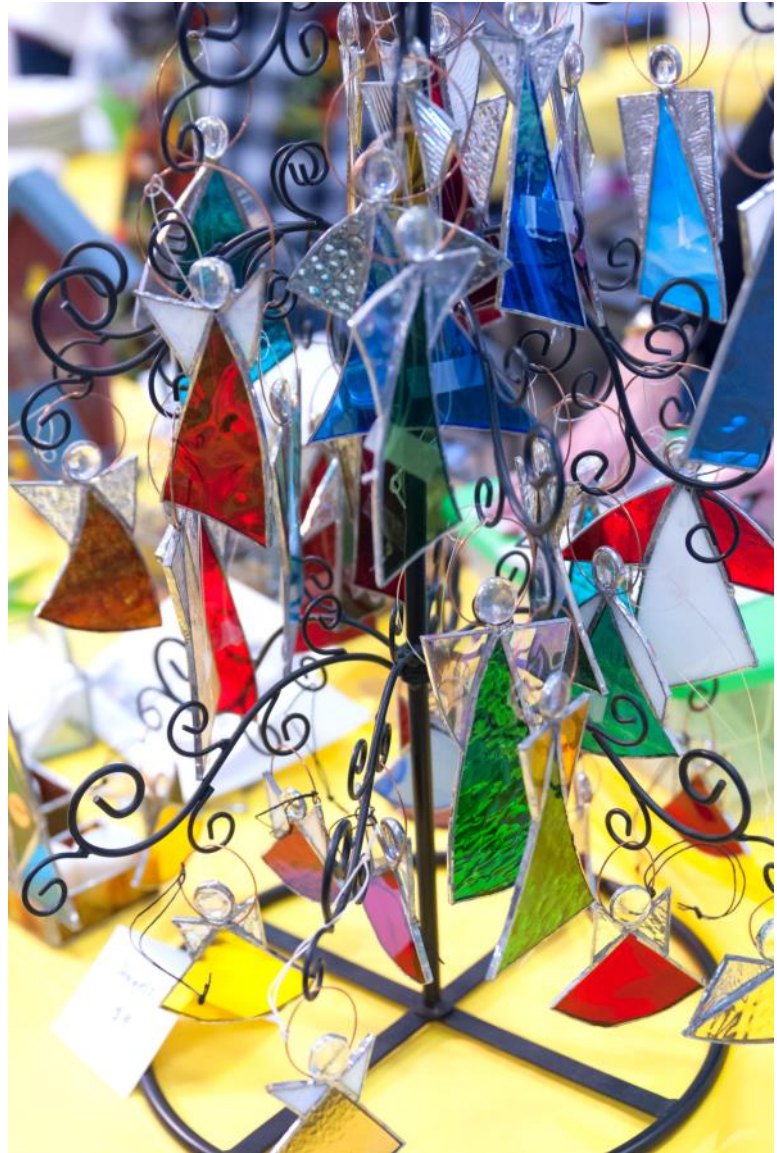

Vendor Care: To help our vendors in any way we can to make this a pleasant experience.

Set Up and Take Down: We're growing...we're not only in the parish hall, but also the narthex, and the youth wing, and some classrooms, and the courtyard...

Outreach... Best of all... All proceeds go to these St. Paul's Outreach projects (as funds allow):

Faith on Tap

Stephen Mansfield wrote in RELEVANT magazine: "The Guinness tale is not primarily about beer. It is not even primarily about the Guinnesses. It is about what God can do with a person who is willing and with a corporation committed to something noble and good in the world." Come find out more about how God moves in our world by sharing your story, listening to others, or just hanging out with a glass of "hoppy goodness"! Faith on Tap will meet on Sunday, October 19, and Sunday, November 16 – the third Sunday of each month at Abbey Road on Old Apex Road in Cary from 7:30 p.m. onward. Faith on Tap is open to both men and women. Please contact Bill Holmes (919)621-5060 or Tyrus Cohan (228)223-4558 with questions. See you there!

Preschool is off to a Wonderful Start!

The children are learning their routines quickly and enjoying their new classes. Muffins for Moms was a huge hit. The Moms enjoyed a muffin with their child before the start of school and enjoyed socializing with other moms. Our first annual ice cream social was a success! The social was a yummy way to hang out with preschool families and meet new friends.

story, and began learning the Lord's Prayer.

The children did an amazing job during our first fire drill. Everyone listened and walked out of the building to our meeting place in a safe manner.

We are looking forward to October as dads will get to come have donuts with us. We will celebrate Halloween in a non-spooky way, and the 3, 4, and 5 year olds will proudly march in our annual Halloween parade on Thursday, October 30th. Preschool is so much fun!

Happy Fall!

Children's Stewardship Update

Our children continue to be generous and have increased the children's stewardship donations to almost $290! From June 2014 to May 2015, children's stewardship funds will be donated to PLM Families Together. We are so excited to watch these donations grow and can't wait to see the children's kindness help the homeless in Wake County.

Are you in touch with "What's Happening"?

If you would like to receive weekly emails about Sunday School lessons, Children's Chapel lessons, and St. Paul's events for children, please email Christine Ingram at churchschool@stpaulscary.org. Be in the know about all things related to children at St. Paul's!

Here's what's happening!

Join us for a "Yam Jam"

All of St. Paul's is invited to join pre-EYC at the "Yam Jam" for the Society of St. Andrew on the morning of Oct. 25, 2015. We will be gleaning sweet potatoes at a local farm – the sweet potatoes we gather will be donated to local food banks and homeless shelters. We won't know our location until the week of our event (it should be within a one hour drive of Cary), and typical gleaning lasts from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00ish. No one is too old or too young to participate-all are welcome! Please email Christine Ingram (christine.ingram@stpaulscary.org) to RSVP for this event.

Pumpkin Carving + Chili Cook-off + Carnival + Trunk or Treat= Fun!!!!

Boo! It is time for Halloween fun! Please join us for our Annual Pumpkin Carving/Chili Cook-off on Oct. 26 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. All ages and stages are welcome at this parish-wide event!

Please bring your "gutless" pumpkin (remove seeds and pulp at home), carving tools, your adorable children (in costume, if desired), a pot of chili to be judged (optional, but prizes are awarded!) and a non-sweet side dish to share – dessert will be provided. We will begin the carving at 5:00 p.m., start judging chili at 5:15 p.m. (so be sure to have your pot in place), eat chili at 5:30 p.m., light the pumpkins at 5:45 p.m. and then start enjoying the youth festivities at 6:00 p.m. Children are encouraged to wear their Halloween costumes. This year's youth activities include a carnival (all proceeds from the carnival go to Episcopal Farm Workers) and "trunk or treat"!

We will also enjoy hotdogs, fixin's, chips and a sweet treat supplied by Children's Ministries (don't forget to bring a side item to share). Chili prizes will be awarded to the top chili recipes (spiciest, best vegetarian, most unusual, and best all around), so dig through your recipe box and make your favorite chili! To make sure we have enough chili, we are asking all chili entrants to "pre-register" their recipe by emailing Christine Ingram and saying "I am bringing chili". Thank you!

Thank You from Sunday School

Thank you to all our families that were able to donate school supplies for Sunday school! We really appreciate your generosity. We also want to thank our 2014-2015 Sunday school teaching team: 3 year olds-Kristen Holmes, Richard Gray, and Emilie Hood; 4 year olds-Jane Womack, Cathy Connors, Rachel Crigger, and Francine Pearce; Kindergarten-Barb Villano, Katie Childers, and Christina Catton; 1st grade-Myrna Belington, Jodi Jeffries, Cecilia Lancia, and Cindy McGinley; 2nd grade-

Susan Hill, Helen Carpenter, LaQuinta Jernigan, and Christi Springfield; 3rd Grade-Melissa Guillotin, Sherri Hubbard, and Ramsey McIntire; 4th grade-Vickie Deese, Kate Boles, and Aurelia Altman; 5th grade-Mike Tanner, Heather Gates, and Suzanne Jennings.

Children ages 3 through 5th grade are welcome to join Sunday school at any time. Sunday school meets in the education building most Sundays, mid-September to mid-May, starting at 10:10 a.m. Please join us!

Thanks to Our
Sunday School Teachers!

Pajama Sunday

Wear pajamas to church? Why not? As a treat for all the children, Nov. 2 (the Sunday when daylight-saving time ends) will be "wear your pajamas to church" Sunday. Please follow dress code restrictions established by Wake County Public Schools. We will also celebrate daylight saving with another Pajama Sunday on March 8, 2015.

Pre-EYC

Pre-EYC has kicked off with a bang! All 4th and 5th graders are welcome to join us for food and fellowship on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month. We meet in the parish hall from 11:15 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. October will be a special month as we will be doing our "reverse trick or treating" at Glenaire on Oct. 12 – we will leave the church at 10:20 a.m. and parents can pick up their children at 1:00 p.m. More information about reverse trick or treating will be available soon. Due to pumpkin carving, there will be no Pre-EYC meeting on Oct. 26. Please contact Christine Ingram for more information.

Communion Classes—Planning ahead!

All children in 1st grade and up that would like to receive Eucharistic education may participate in Communion classes. In 2015 classes will be held on Feb. 22, March 1, and March 8. Our Communion celebration will be held at the 9:00 a.m. worship service on March 15, 2015. Classes are led by our clergy and are held during the Sunday school hour. Please contact Christine Ingram with any questions.

Christmas Pageant – Start the Countdown!

Our Annual Christmas Pageant will be held at the 9:00 a.m. service on Sunday, December 14, 2015. All children ages 3 through 5th grade are invited to participate. Rehearsals are scheduled for Friday evening, Dec. 12 – speaking parts only – and Saturday morning Dec. 13 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Christmas Pageant

Christmas Pageant participation forms will be distributed on October 26.

Fostering the love of Christ in the youth of St. Paul's.

Youth Sunday School

Youth Sunday school is in full swing and we would love for you to join us! There is a middle school class for 6th-8th graders and another for high schoolers, grades 9-12. The curriculum is called

"re:form" and it addresses theological concepts or questions each week. The Sunday school hour is from 10:10-11:00 a.m. (between services).

Sunday School Lessons in October

Date	Middle School	High School
Oct 5	Can someone lose their salvation?	Why did Jesus get baptized?
Oct 12	Can I be a Christian without going to church?	Is believing in Jesus the only way to get to heaven?
Oct 19	Can it be proven that God exists?	If there's only one God, why are there so many different religions?
Oct 26	Is God male?	Why do Christians believe that Christianity is the best religion?

Episcopal Youth Community

Every young person in grades 6-12 who attends St. Paul's is welcome to be a part of the Episcopal Youth Community (EYC). The youth group is divided into middle school and high school programs, though sometimes activities are combined. Friends are always welcome to attend. EYC gathers on Sunday nights for fellowship and fun activities from 5 - 7 p.m.

with a shared meal at 6:30 p.m. We combine lots of zaniness – games, songs, lots of action – with worship and service. Our mission is to develop a spiritually rich community of young people through our programming and the presence of faith-filled adults. It's organized chaos but it works!

October 5 –Acolyte Training

We invite anyone from fourth grade and up – even adults – to serve as acolytes. This training will prepare new members for serving as a torchbearer and a refresher class for anyone who is already trained and wants to learn to be a crucifer. The training will be held from 4:00-5:00 p.m. in the church. Questions? Contact Jodi Jeffries at jmjeffries81@gmail.com.

October 5 –EYC Kickball

Come join us for some crazy EYC-style kickball games. We'll meet at church and walk to Dorothy Park. We'll come back to church for devotions and dinner. Come get your game on!

October 12 – Digging Deeper: God in Pop Culture

Let's take a look at the messages in books and movies like The Hunger Games, Divergent, and The Walking Dead! Where can we find God's message of love, hope, and redemption in these and other popular post-apocalyptic stories? Are there zombies in heaven? Which faction would you be in, given your own unique spiritual gifts? Come play some games, watch some videos, and explore these ideas and questions together. No zombies allowed tonight.

Avodah

Avodah is a Hebrew word used in the Bible whose root has three distinct yet intertwined meanings: work, worship, and service. The meanings of this ancient word offer powerful wisdom for modern times.

October 18 & 19 – Diocesan Event

Avodah: Workshop & Worship is a one-night service and Sabbath retreat for middle and high school youth. We will be attending the Avodah being held at St. Francis Episcopal in Greensboro, NC. There will be fun and games, service, and a focus on prayer and Sabbath. The cost is $50 and some scholarships are available. The registration deadline is October 10 and can be done online at <http://www.dionc.org/events/3161006>.

October 19 – Grounds Work

Since this is right after the Diocesan event, we will have an abbreviated EYC from 5:00 - 6:00 p.m. to work on the grounds around church. We will plant bulbs, weed, and maybe prune some around the youth wing to make our space more inviting. Bring work gloves and gardening tools. There will be no dinner served. Just fellowship!

October 26 – Carnival

It's time for our annual carnival that runs in conjunction with the Children's Ministry pumpkin carving. Come at 3:00 p.m. to set up and plan to stay until 7:30 p.m. – or until everything is cleaned up. Middle schoolers will set up and run the carnival games and, new this year, the high schoolers will create some "trunk or treat" cars decorated in the theme of their choice. Voting for the best cars will be by donations and the car with the most donations wins! All money collected from the games and "trunk or treat" will go to the Episcopal Farmworkers' Ministry.

Adult Education Sunday Morning Forums in October

Sunday morning forums are held in the chapel between the 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. services.

Oct. 5 – “Seeing the Face of God in Each Other”: an overview of the Diocesan anti-racism seminar which will be held at St. Paul’s on October 18, 2014.

Oct. 12 – “Harvest for Hospitality” – St Paul’s role in the Diocesan campaign to support farm workers in our area who work long days in the fields to provide food for our tables.

Oct. 19 – “Conversation Cafes on Transitions in Life” : an overview and introduction to a three-part series on life-changing challenges facing individuals and families.

“EMBRACING AN ALTERNATIVE ORTHODOXY: Richard Rohr on the Legacy of St. Francis,” began in September and continues in October. Led by the Reverend George Adamik, this series explores a Christian faith informed by contemplation, mysticism, compassion, justice, and centuries of rich Christian history. No sign up necessary. October dates, topics, and times are:
Tuesday, Oct. 7. “Orthopraxy vs. Verbal Orthodoxy” (Living Like Jesus) (10:00 – 11:00 am and 7:00 – 8:00 pm)
Tuesday, Oct. 14. “Mysticism over Moralism” (10:00 – 11:00 am and 7:00 – 8:00 pm)

All sessions are in the youth wing.

CONTEMPLATIVE STUDIES WITH THOMAS MERTON begins Thursday, Oct. 2, 7:00 pm. Monthly meetings will include prayers, readings from Merton and other spiritual writers, and questions for contemplative dialogue. This small group experience will provide an opportunity for participants to deepen their faith and sense of community. Sign up before the Oct. 2 meeting by contacting Lanny Wase (lannywase@mac.com).

“CONVERSATION CAFES ON TRANSITIONS IN LIFE,” hosted by the St. Paul’s Care and Share Ministry, will provide information helpful to families and individuals facing the effects of a life-changing illness, aware of the need to make plans for their own future medical care, or concerned with how to support others in need because of illness or other life-changing challenges. Sessions will be led by Rich Gwaltney, Community Engagement Representative for Transitions LifeCare. Conversation Cafes will be held in the youth wing on:

Wednesday, October 22, 7:00 pm.

Wednesday, November 5, 7:00 pm.

Wednesday, November 19, 7:00 pm.

Watch for information on the St. Paul’s website and in bulletin notices about sign-up opportunities.

Adult Education STUDIES

October Adult Education On-Line Resource

In a recent homily, the Reverend George Adamik referred to Gratefulness.org, a website which provides education for the practice of grateful living as a global ethic, inspired by the teachings of Br. David Steindl-Rast and colleagues. “Gratefulness – the full response to a given moment and all it contains – is a universal practice that fosters personal transformation, cross-cultural understanding, interfaith dialogue, intergenerational respect, nonviolent conflict resolution, and ecological sustainability” (Gratefulness.org). The website contains videos of Br. David, a list of his books, practices for grateful living, a newsletter, and other resources.

Seeing the Face of God in Each Other

Seeing the Face of God in Each Other, will be held October 18th, 2014 from 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. at St. Paul's, Cary. Facilitators from the Bishop's Committee for Racial Justice and Reconciliation (The Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina) will lead the seminar, utilizing interactive communication exercises, videos, and small group discussion topics to explore how institutional and systemic racism impede our ability to create an inclusive community. Please don't miss this opportunity to broaden and strengthen your commitment to embracing our differences and celebrating our uniqueness as we build Christ's inclusive-community based on justice, peace, and loving respect for the dignity of us all.

PLM Volunteer Opportunity

PLM Families Together has been awarded a "Playground Build" grant by national, non-profit, KaBOOM!.

KaBOOM! partners with corporate funders to create great play spaces through the participation and leadership of local communities. The funding partner for this project is the CarMax Foundation. The children and parents in our program will help design the playground.

St. Paul's will team up with others to build a playground for the children at PLM Families Together at 908 Plainview Dr. Raleigh, NC. We are seeking at least 10 volunteers who do not have to be skilled, trained, or have any special tools; they just have to be enthusiastic, energetic, a team player, willing to work, and have fun! We are going to have two pre-build days on October 27 & 28. The build day is on October 29. Contact Kevin Swann by email (swann.kev@gmail.com) or phone (919-607-5913).

Operation Cold Front – Helping Homeless and Less-fortunate Veterans

October 5 -12, the Outreach Committee will be collecting NEW winter coats, gloves, scarves, and hats. Most needed coat sizes are large through XXXL.

Neutral colors are ideal so they can be used for both men and women.

The VA Hospital in Durham will also accept cash donations to purchase new coats. Coats prices vary from $20 to $31, checks should be made out to the VA Medical Center with "Operation Cold Front" on the memo line.

Please place your donations in the outreach-collection box in the narthex.

For additional information on ways you can volunteer contact Bob Johnson at (919) 537 1369 or bobajohns@gmail.com.

Kairos Prison Ministry – an Outreach Program supported at St. Paul's

Through this international, prison ministry, trained volunteers from St. Paul's, as well as many other churches, build relationships with incarcerated adults and young people through weekend, spiritual-retreat programs. St. Paul's also supports Kairos by making contributions toward meals and other weekend expenses and, above all, by PRAYING.

Kairos is a Christian, voluntary, lay-led, ecumenical, continuing ministry to the incarcerated and their loved ones designed to build strong Christian communities inside institutional walls.

Kairos volunteers go into prisons in teams of 30 to 40 to pray, share the love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ, share meals, and fellowship with the incarcerated on a one-to-one basis. The first visit is a three-day event, during which time the team teaches a short introductory course on Christianity. Subsequent visits are monthly, half-day reunions with the prisoners over a twelve-month period.

Kairos Torch is a Kairos ministry that holds weekends for incarcerated youth, ages 12 to 25. This program is similar to the weekend programs for adults, but Kairos Torch is tailored specifically to the needs and interests of young people.

St. Paul's parishioners, Gerri Batchelor, Brooks Harris, Earl Barber, and Jeanne deWard will be participating in a Kairos Torch weekend at C.A. Dillon Youth Development Center during the weekend of October 17-19. Jeri Jeffries will also be continuing to participate as a mentor to one of the young men in the months following the weekend. Jeanne and Earl will be team leaders for the weekend; Gerri will lead the music team, and Brooks will serve as a table leader. The good news is, that YOU can participate, too! Relax – you don't have to go inside to be involved; there are many ways you can help. We will be collecting donations for "meal tickets" – a five dollar donation will provide a meal for one of the young participants. The young men get a "meal ticket" that says, "This meal was provided for you by (First Name)." It is very touching for them to know that someone they have never met has cared about them enough to provide them with a meal (and they do enjoy the food!) Above all, we need your PRAYERS! Each person who agrees to pray adds a link to the paper prayer chain that is hung around the meeting room during the weekend. The young men love going over and reading the names and knowing that people are praying for them. Please contact Earl, Jeanne, Gerri, Brooks or Jeri if you would like to add your name to the prayer chain or to sponsor one or more meals.

There are Kairos groups ministering at several NC institutions:

Kairos Inside in 4 men's prisons: Pender Correctional (Burgaw), Pasquotank Correctional (Elizabeth City), Marion Correctional (Marion), and Central (Raleigh).

Kairos Inside at North Carolina Correctional Institution for Women and at Southern Correctional Institution for women in Troy, NC.

Kairos Torch at C.A. Dillon youth facility, ministering to incarcerated youth, ages 12 to 25.

Kairos Outside provides spiritual healing to families of the incarcerated, who often feel that they too are "doing time." Spouses, parents and other relatives of prisoners meet with teams of Kairos volunteers to share their faith and gain strength from Christian community.

Nationally over 20,000 volunteers present the ministry to more than 14,000 inmates annually, in over 270 institutions in 33 states and 5 foreign countries. More than 170,000 men and women have been introduced to Kairos since its inception. (See <http://www.kairosprisonministry.org/> for more information.)

From the Interim Minister of Music

It is hard to believe that I have been on the job here in this capacity for about a month now. There has been a lot of program to get going – music to select, scheduling to refine, and personnel to be sought. So far, so good – no major collisions!

A lot goes on behind the scenes in order to provide music for worship each week. Organists practice, choirs and instrumental ensembles rehearse (eight in all), and music goes in and out of folders to name a few things. There is much work, fun, and fellowship in all of this, and we in music ministries can always use more musically-talented people to join in.

If you have ever sung or played an instrument (and if you ever played an instrument, they made you sing some, right?) then you most probably have the skills to be in a choir or play handbells. Youth and kids who are currently playing an instrument or singing in a choir most definitely should be participating in an age-appropriate musical group at St Paul's. There is a lot of joy in making music together, in a group that is greater than the sum of its parts.

Get in touch with me if you are interested in learning more about these, or better yet, joining a music group contact Rusty McKinney Interim Minister of Music at rusty.mckinney@stpaulscary.org or at 919-467-1477 ext. 15.

Welcome to Epiphany Choir Directors

We are pleased to welcome Jason and Rebecca Sayers as the new co-directors of the youngest singing choir, the Epiphany Choir. They both attended Gettysburg College located in Gettysburg, PA and participated in a variety of college and community ensembles, including marching band, orchestra, small groups, and several choirs. They both also held leadership roles within the music program, including directing handbells on Sunday mornings at chapel. Jason graduated with a B.A. in music with a concentration in trombone performance, touring twice in Europe with a big band. Jason continues to play jazz in the Triangle. Although Rebecca was a biology and chemistry double major, she enjoyed playing bassoon in collegiate groups and semi-professionally in the central Pennsylvania area. They have a daughter, Caroline, in Epiphany Choir.

We look forward to seeing the Epiphany Choir with the Junior Choir on November 2 at the 9:00 a.m. service. More info to come!

Proclamation Bells & Junior Choir News

Parents of children participating in Proclamation Bells should note there is an earlier pick-up time than last year. We will be done at 7:20 p.m. so that Rusty has time to transition to the St Paul's Choir rehearsal. Please pick your child up in the sanctuary.

Heather Gates, Emily Schertz, and Sarah Schertz are providing assistance in Proclamation Bells as we introduce the art and fun of bell ringing to four new ringers!

Ms. Heather is also providing assistance for Junior Choir. We will dismiss at 6:45 p.m. and you can pick up your children in the foyer outside the choir room.
